DISTRICT NEWS

Happenings of General Local Interest--
The Excursion

The excursion on the steamer North Star was greatly enjoyed by all who participated in it. Although the weather threatened rain some of the more timid souls remained at home, still the towns were practically depopulated. The trip up the river and out into the lake gave an opportunity to view this magnificent stream and how easily so large a boat can be steered up the ever-winding stream by competent seamen. Men, women and children took great pleasure in examining the steamer from stem to stern and few, if any, neglected to ascend to the pilot house to have a chat with the genial Captains Armstrong and Bacon. All were unimpressed in their expressions of approval of Captain Armstrong's idea of organizing a tourist trade and thought that with the splendid scenery afforded on the North Star and the grandeur of the scenery along the route no great difficulties should be met with in making it a success.

Who wrote the last letter to the Post north general?

R. N. Kingston, of Windermere, has planted 150 fruit trees this season.

The Postmaster-General must be doing some deep cooing here. Six weeks ago he wrote that the petition to the Cranbrook Wilmer mail route would receive his earnest consideration.

There is a good opening for a first class general blacksmith in Wilmer. Every assistance and plenty of work will be given to a steady man. Apply to this office for further information.

We forgive Old Man Simpson for out-tugging us at his exchange last—he was square up to the baseball match. Perhaps we made him hot—now again! He'll, we have never cut you off.

County Court will be held in the Wilmer Court House at 11 o'clock a.m. August 2nd, with Judge Foran presiding. Those having cases or desiring to become citizens of this country should remember the date.

Wonder where the Canadian mail has got off at. Canucks will all soon be round-shouldered from packing eagles about. If the Dominion Government has no respect for feelings it should give a care for State and health.

Mr. P. Farnham and wife arrived on the North Star Friday night from New York. They were the guests of Mr. R. Handolph. Bruce while in Wilmer and went up House Three creek to Bluff Saturday. Mr. Farnham is the principal owner of the McDonald Creek Mines and has been here several times. His visit to the mine this year will undoubtedly be most satisfactory as the steady development of the property has made a vast improvement both in the quality and quantity of the ore.

A Colorado miner writes The Outcrop: "I have read your paper for some time and intend shortly to visit your district. I cannot find an ad. in your column indicating that there is any banking or flotation of any kind thereabouts. Would you kindly inform me where I could deposit money safely and conveniently?" Either the Bank of Commerce at Cranbrook or the Imperial Bank at Golden could be induced to take care of your money, if not we would like the job and still make no charge.

M. Carlin returned from Kamloops Saturday.

Mrs. S. Craig, of Windermere, left Thursday for Inland.

Mrs. F. E. Conroy, of Manila, is visiting her brother, Mr. Chas. Carson.

Mrs. J. E. Griffiths and her two boys returned home on Thursday from Vancouver.

Miss Lila Laflaw is home for her vacation from Columbia college, New Westminster.

Mrs. and Miss Sprague, formerly of Donald and now of Toronto, arrived in town Wednesday and will spend the summer here.

O. D. Haas returned on Wednesday from Sicamous. Mr. Cheley will arrive in the course of a week or two accompanied by his family.

Work has been commenced on the Black Mesa mines, owned by a Manchester, England, firm, at Lee River and a shipment of neta will be made to Manchester as soon as possible.

Miss E. Pringle left on Sunday for New Westminster. It is understood Miss Pringle will return but not to resume her duty as teacher, which is a disappointment to both children and parents.

The company who intend erecting a number of heated creek have secured an acre of land from J. W. Cameron and an acre from the Dominion Government.

A gang of men are at work clearing brush for the site.

On Friday morning at 11 o'clock the death occurred from diphtheria at Hilda Hastings, aged six, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Hastings of Golden.

The little girl had been ill only a few days and much sympathy is extended to the sorrowing parents in their bereavement.

Jack Wren left Tuesday for Bangor.

F. W. Jones went to Beaver Mountain.

The English church vicarage is being built.

Rev. Mr. Hogg paid his weekly visit to Beaver.

J. S. McCarter of Revelstoke is in town Monday.

W. S. Woodland of Kail is the guest of Mrs. J. Woodland.

The steamer Selkirk has been at the dock here for a few days.

Quite a number of commercial men were in town during the last week.

All subscriptions to The Outcrop for last year are now chargeable at $2.50. Pay now $2 for this year and save the extra 50 cents.

Mrs. J. S. Gith gave a delightful tea Saturday afternoon in honor of Mr. Conroy of Manila and Mrs. and Miss Sprague of Toronto.

Mrs. J. A. Stoddard came down from Windermere last Wednesday with Evelyn for the purpose of having an operation performed on her little girl's foot, which has been troubling her for some time. This has been successfully accomplished and "Tootsie" is feeling very well under the circumstances.

A movement is on foot to clean out the old mill in the Tule Jano Cattle Co. for those trappers and miners who go from here. It is not done they will find it prohibitory go to Revelstoke and out to that route.

Owing to high water on eastern mail boats have arrived since Thursday last when a through train arrived. Two train engines have been washed out between Calgary and Banff, and about five miles of track swept clean away.

Excursion is to take place next Thursday. Captain Armstrong should be well supported in his enterprise and certainly has the best wishes of the town for his success.

A Man's 52 Years' Diary.

A man died lately at the age of 73, who at the age of 18 began keeping a record which he continued for fifty-two years, which is the best commentary we have seen on the life of a mere working man. His life was not consecrated to a high ideal. The book he left states that in fifty-two years this "natural man" had earned $28,715 wages, of which he had received $10,023 as pension, while for the remaining 58,023 he had paid about $10,000. In fifty-two years, according to his bookkeeping, he had drunk 28,750 glasses of beer and 36,085 glasses of spirits, for all which he spent $5,000. The diary closes with the words: "I have tried all things. I have seen many. I have accomplished nothing."

A THOUGHT ON MINING

A thought on mining as an investment. You who measure gains in mercantile pursuits by the fixed ratio of the buying and selling price; you who have the sample scale of interest on money loaned; you who buy land, build houses, and becoming retired landlords, if you would take the pains where chance enters more largely, as in industrial, railroad or other stock, or buying and selling the goods—all are asked to view in unprejudiced light mining.

There can be no more legitimate investment than mining. We mean here, mining, not intelligent mining, such as make producers and operators them. A miner's gain is in one's loss. He takes nothing from the pockets of his neighbor, but from God Almighty's hand. Competition, hoarding, gambling, marketing speculation is unknown to the gold miner. He locates or buys his mines, performing a duty imposed by the government, or paying value received. He develops it, helping his neighbor by giving him employment and consuming his produce. His metal extracted, competition does not enter into the sale, but it is always in demand at fixed figures.

Trust monopolies and water industrial and railroad stocks. Real estate hoards and goes. Manufacturing is doomed in the prime by centralized competition. Bonds are sure, but dreadfully slow. Mortgages do not always secure. There are a thousand besetting evils in all investments, except a gold mine.

Mining has been given a pall of prejudice by reason of fraud. Men pretending to own property have secured money to waste where there were plainly no values to be secured. Others, having good property, have squandered money in extravagant and criminal management. Too many, with no knowledge of the vocation, have poured money into the ground to reach a ledge, which no intelligent man would discontinue. Investors are sometimes to blame in other respects. They put dollar in mines, expecting in the following day to see in return. They do not realize the time required to develop a mine, and when have the field dugged before such has progressed to that stage testing merits of their property.

These are causes for intense prejudice. Prejudice is foolish. When in its time light everything, else you may lose a golden opportunity. View mining to be assured of competency, be informed in such necessary for operations. Gold in millions of dollars; there are safe gains in it. Equip yourself for an intelligent, faithful search and mining is the safest and most fascinating form of investment found today—Sumner.

Wilmer Beat Steele

At Baseball 35 to 17--Cranbrook Won 31 to 19--Good Playing.

The Wilmer Baseball Club returned home yesterday from Cranbrook and beat Steele 35 to 17. They report a good time and are pleased with the results, and their friends here are proud in their praise. As will be seen by the score below they were away ahead of the Steele players, although they say the Steele have played well at times, but like themselves needed practice. Captain Leach was content with his decisions. As our reporter did not get the following remarks of a spectator most worthy:

"The Fort Steele Baseball Club proved themselves very easy victims to the Wilmer Baseball Club on July 1st at Fort Steele. The visitors both outplayed and outthrew their opponents who were almost completely at the mercy of Fred Larnum, corkers and throwers. Larnum struck out 14."

Steele side notes: Fine time. Everybody happy. Stevenson hit ball hard every time and made home runs. Larnum made home strikes and pitches hard and steady. Steele pitched true innings with good results, play well, and is excellent catch. Steele kept up a good game, but support weak. Other sports good. Batted all night. Steele people say visitors won't reach last base at Cranbrook, but believe it.

The game for the Cranbrook game was lost on crate house, so we reproduce the remarks of another spectator:

"The Wilmer Baseball Club gave Cranbrook a big scare in Saturday and if their full team had been along would have undoubtedly defeated the newcomers. The game was called at 2 o'clock with Wilmer at the bat and for the first four innings it was both close and exciting, the score being two to one in favor of Cranbrook. At the end of the seventh it was all persons' game, being 19 to 21 in favor of Cranbrook. In the eighth Cranbrook scored 19 from errors made and Wilmer none. Larnum's box work was excellent, but his support in the field failed. Noble put up an excellent game."

Cranbrook makes caught on the side. Captain Stevenson gave entire satisfaction. Larnum and Steele were the home-runners. Fine grounds, good outfield and lined practice. Had the visitors their full team the result would have been different. Larnum pitched a good steady game but hit every ball. Larnum deserves great credit. Noble played fine game. Manager Shook is all right, Stevenson smart. Would like to have a game here. Visitors danced all the previous night. Etc.

KOOTENAY CENTRAL

Charter Sold and Refineries to Be Built.

Confirmation of the rumor of the sale in London of the Kootenay Central railroad charter, has been received here, says an Elko dispatch to the Vancouver World.

The scheme includes other interests of importance to East Kootenay. It is that the building of the road is contingent upon the building of reduction works and refineries to handle the output of the principal mines of British Columbia.

The promoters of the scheme are the persons having under hand the British mine. Instead of shipping ore it is their intention to build a railroad from some point on the Cran's North Pacific line near Elko to the mine, a distance of about 20 miles; and to establish near Elko smelters and refineries. Two years ago local people secured from the Provincial Parliament a charter for, with a subsidy of $1,000 per mile, to build a road from a point near where the Cran's North Pacific line leaves the Kootenay, north along the Kootenay river to Golden on the main line of the Canadian Pacific. Since then an English syndicate has been developing some large lead and copper properties along the line of the proposed road. It is also stated that this syndicate has secured the large iron deposits on Bull River, near Warburton, and extensive coal areas near Fort.

The enterprise seems to be the outgrowth of the lead and smelting situation of British Columbia, and a solution of the problem that confronts the mining industry of the province.

At the present time there is not a mine of any importance in East Kootenay smelting ore, and some of these are the best in the world. The community has a line of road through the valley, we are not carrying a mine with the Canadian Pacific and the Great Northern at Elko. It is thought by some that J. J. Hill is back of the Kootenay Central, to secure the traffic of East Kootenay. As a result of the prospect of the road being built, and a home market for ore, there is some thought of the mining industry.

WILMER, B.C., THURSDAY, JULY 10, 1902.

Deputy Attorney-General McLean has applied to the full court for an order to compel Wm. MacAdams, editor of the Sandon Paystreak, to appear before the court and answer a charge of contempt of court. The Paystreak has on several occasions "called" the judiciary, but William evidently is not timid and refers to it as appended:

"As a penalty for publishing the truth in these columns regarding the judges and courts of this Province, Attorney-General Eberts threatens to go after the Paystreak for contempt of court and will probably throw the editor into a dungeon. The attorney-general should have no difficulty in establishing his case as the editor of this paper pleads guilty to having abetted as much contempt for the British Columbia judiciary as any one man could possibly retain in his possession without becoming violent."

With a fine steamer like the North Star plying on the Columbia river thousands of people may be expected to make the trip from Golden to Windermere lake, and among the number some will invest in our land and mines, while all will plan for a second trip. Then it is the duty of the people at each end and along the route to make it a point to assist in some way to advertise the route and to encourage Capt. Armstrong in his endeavors to build up this district. Without intending to embarrass the Captain we say that he is the most enterprising man we know of in this Province and there is nothing too big for him to undertake—more, he accomplishes every time. Few men would have attempted to bring so large a steamer from Kootenay river but he has accomplished it. If the people of this district admire his enterprise let it be shown by assistance and encouragement in cultivating a tourist trade.

Bulletin No. 6 published by the Bureau of Provincial Information entitled "The Finances of British Columbia," by the Hon. J. D. Prentice, Minister of Finance, contains much valuable information. In concluding the minister aptly says:

"It is true the Government has gone to the Dominion Government with a claim for better terms, and a case has been presented based upon several things.

"First, the great disparity between the revenues which we contribute to the Dominion Government and the expenditure we receive in return, which for thirty years up to 30th June, 1901, amounts in round numbers for contributions, to $11,771,095, and for expenditure in this Province to $28,170,828.

"Second, that on account of the physical configuration of the country and the peculiar conditions which exist, the cost of administration is many times greater than it is in other provinces.

"Third, that on account of our remoteness from the wholesale centres of the east, from which we receive a very large percentage of our supplies, the freight rates impose an additional burden which is not felt in eastern Canada.

"In view of these considerations, which induced the Dominion Government to grant better terms to Nova Scotia, we think we are entitled to special consideration for treatment at the hands of the Dominion Government, and to a largely-increased subsidy. We believe we have proved these propositions up to the hilt, and that at least up to the present time there has been no successful, or, in fact, any contradiction of what we have set forth. "Right is might and will prevail," so we have been taught to believe, and we are confident that sooner or later these claims will be recognised and in a large measure, at least, provided for. The case which was presented at Ottawa last session by the delegation is a very strong one, but it has been supplemented, and will be still further supplemented by other and stronger representations. As has been announced by the Premier, Sir Wilfred Laurier has agreed to a second conference, which will take place this fall, at which, with more leisure at their disposal, the two governments will go more fully into the case. In the meantime it is not for this Government to cease in the work of development, because delay in important enterprises and important policies would simply mean to set back the country so many years."

GOOD ADVICE.Don't Marry a Man to Reform Him.

This following poem is published at the request of an aged lady who states she is much interested in the many moral lessons and poems published in these columns and hopes some young girl may profit by this one:

Don't marry a man to reform him!
To God and your own soul be true,
Don't link to his vice your virtue;
You'll rue it, dear girl, if you do.

No matter how fervent his pleadings,
Be not by his promises led;
If he can't be a man while a-wedding,
He'll never be one when he's wed.

Don't marry a man to reform him—
To repent it, alas, when too late;

The mission of wives least successful
Is the making of crooked limbs straight.

There's many a maiden has tried it,
And proved it a failure at last;
Better tread your life's path alone, dear,
Than wed with a lover that's fast.

Mankind's much the same the world over,
The exceptions you'll find are but few;
When the rule is defeat and disaster,
The chances are great against you.

Don't trust your bright hopes for the future

The beautiful crown of your youth,
To the keeper of him who holds lightly
His fair name of honor and truth.

To honor and love! you must promise;
Don't pledge what you cannot fulfill,
If he'll have no respect for himself, dear,
Most surely you, then, never will.

To tell us the frown of a woman
Is strong as the blow of a man,
And the world will be better when Women

Preach an error as hard as they can.

Make virtue the price of your favor!

Place wrongdoing under a ban;

And let him who would a wife and wed you
Prove himself in full measure a man!

—Montreal Weekly Witness.

Pardoned After 14 Years.

Michael Kennedy, who was sentenced at Kamloops in 1888 by Mr. Justice Walker to life imprisonment was released from the New Westminster prison several days ago as a result of the King's clemency. Kennedy shot and killed one Archer near Golden in 1888. The story of the crime will be remembered by many Kamloopians who heard the trial. Kennedy, it seems, married, and with his wife he went to Golden and started ranching in the vicinity of the town. Archer began to visit the house when Kennedy was working on his ranch, and Kennedy, who was insanely jealous, when he believed that his wife was unfaithful, and that Archer was the man in the case, lay in wait for Archer, and shot him. Supt. Huxley worked on the case and secured much of the evidence, as a result of which Kennedy was sentenced to life imprisonment at Kamloops. When Kennedy was sentenced he jumped up in the dock and began cursing the police and authorities, and there was quite a scene in the court. It took about eight men to subdue him, and literally drag him through the streets of Kamloops to the jail. His wife secured a divorce when he was imprisoned, and is living with her second in Vancouver. —Kamloops Sentinel.

There is some talk of giving a ball in aid of the Hospital on Friday night, July 18th, in the Atholmer hall. It will be definitely announced next issue.

In order to be right on the question of religious liberty you must maintain the right of others to believe what is wrong.

Remember this: that there is a proper dignity and proportion to be observed in the performance of every act of life. —Marcus Aurelius.

He who exchanges truth and independence for so-called unity and harmony has made a very poor bargain. —Sentinel of Liberty.

The Dread Alternative—"Judge not lest ye be judged." Wm. McAdams has been summoned to tell the court in Victoria why it is bad. As Billy has no wings, and only one pair of boots he may not reach the court before it forecloses on him. If he proves his case will the court oblige him? If he does not, what will they do with Billy? Probably send him to jail or Sander for 60 days. —New Denver.
